FALLS CHURCH, VA (October 3, 2017) – President and CEO of Capital Caring and West Virginia Caring, Malene Davis has received an impressive share of national awards and recognition for her work in advancing the hospice philosophy and advocating for better care for the seriously ill. However, WV Living magazine’s recognition of Davis as one of West Virginia’s “Wonder Women of 2017” is among the most personal acknowledgements of her commitment to her home state and life’s work.
