Experience Matters

30-Plus Years of Experience

Dr. Michael Byas-Smith is Medical Director of Capital Caring Health's Schaufeld Family Advanced Pain Clinic, an interventional palliative care treatment center.

With 30-plus years of experience, Dr. Byas-Smith is a leader in the field of interventional palliative care and he provides consulting services throughout northern Virginia and the greater Washington, D.C. region.

Prior to joining Capital Caring Health, Dr. Byas-Smith spent 22 years at Emory University School of Medicine in Atlanta, Georgia, where he served as Professor of Anesthesiology and Pain Medicine, as well as Director of the Winship

Cancer Institute Cancer Pain Clinic.

Therapies at The Schaufeld Family Advanced Pain Clinic

Our patients come to us with unrelenting pain from cancer in advanced stages, neurological disorders or ongoing joint or back pain.

Eight Specific Therapies Include:

- Autonomic Nerve Blockade for Long-Term Pain Relief (Neurolysis)
- Intrathecal Therapies
- Intrathecal Neurolytics Phenol
- Fluid Aspiration
- Major Joint Injection
- Joint Desensitization
- Epidural Injection
- Axial Fracture Therapies

Three Unique Features:

No endless waiting for an appointment. Generally, next day appointments are available for acute pain sufferers.

No 'Oh My Gosh' medical bills. What insurance and co-pays don't cover – we do. We turn no one away, regardless of ability to pay.

Residential setting. Not a hospital or medical office building – the Pain Clinic is in a residential setting with ample and free parking.
